Gallery Display.

- Member's works for display will be submitted to the Curation Committee for acceptance before being displayed in the Gallery.
- To have items on display members are required to be paid up financial members of the Society for the duration of the exhibition of their works. Display pieces will be displayed for a maximum of 3 months from the date of submission and if not sold may be taken off display; members shall promptly collect their items when notified.
- Should your membership lapse for 6 months, your item becomes the property of the Society for disposal as the Society deems fit.
- You are required to insure your Gallery display or Exhibition items against any damage, loss or theft of the item and you agree that the Society is not liable for such damage, loss or theft whilst at the Gallery
- Photos of members work may be used in promotional activities

Please see the Curation Procedures for more information on the exhibition of your exhibits

Exhibitions

Exhibitions may have Conditions of Entry (for example dates, themes) which need to be adhered to by the exhibitor

Sales of Exhibits

- By submitting an exhibit for sale in the Thames Art Gallery you are appointing the Thames Society of Arts Inc as your agent to sell the exhibit on your behalf.
- You agree to pay a commission on all sales of your exhibits. The present commission rate is 33% of the listed price. However, this will be reduced to 20% if you volunteer to do desk duties.
- All sales are GST inclusive. The Society is not registered for GST. If you are registered for GST you are accountable to the IRD for payment of GST.

TSA CURATION PROCEDURES

All exhibitors must be financial members.

- Paintings are expected to arrive complete with D-rings or another system evenly positioned on the work that can be comfortably attached to the display system.
- The Curator will usually be first to see the work of a new exhibitor but should not hang the work without giving fellow-curators to assess the item. If the work is accepted, it will be exhibited as space allows.
- It is in the best interests of all, that works are moved around the gallery regularly. No member has a right to any particular position in the gallery.
- All work will be displayed for 3 months (or longer only at the discretion of the Curator). When that period expires the work may be taken down by the curator and shall be collected promptly by the member.
- Members whose work sells regularly will be encouraged to exhibit multiple works but no guarantee is given that all works will be displayed prominently.
- No other member or volunteer should hang, change or move their work except to sign it out.

- Incorporated Societies Act 2022 - Membership forms are required to be kept for 7 years
